

April 23, 2018

The following was sent to the listserv.

FREE Webinar on 4/25 at 2EST-ELA Instruction in the Contextualized Classroom: A Standards-Based Approach to Soft Skills-Infused Instruction

Thought some of you would like to take advantage of this opportunity - with Kentucky's own Susie Roberts!

"ELA Instruction in the Contextualized Classroom: A Standards-Based Approach to Soft Skills-Infused Instruction"

Date: Wednesday, April 25, 2018

Time: 2:00-3:00 p.m. EST

Presented by: Susan Roberts

With the implementation of WIOA mandates in adult education programs across the country, programs are asking themselves, "How can I teach academic and soft skills in my classroom in a way that will most benefit my students?" In this interactive, high-energy workshop, you'll learn about the important elements of preparing curriculum for the contextualized ELA classroom. Walk away with an arsenal of CCR- and soft skills-based ELA materials, teaching strategies, activities, and knowledge to help prepare your students for the classroom, for employment, and for life.

Webinar space is limited to 500 and is provided on a first-come, first-served basis.

You will need your membership ID to register for this webinar.
Please contact membership@coabe.org if you have any questions.

More About Our Presenter

Susan Roberts of SCR Consulting is a trainer, teacher, author, and lifelong learner with 10+ years of adult education instructional leadership and curriculum experience. She works with programs across the country to help make standards-based, contextualized instruction a seamless and, most importantly, fun process. While she is often seen talking to large audiences, her favorite part of her work is helping make teachers' jobs easier. Learn more about her at www.scr.consulting.

COABE

COALITION ON ADULT BASIC EDUCATION

